

We Believe...

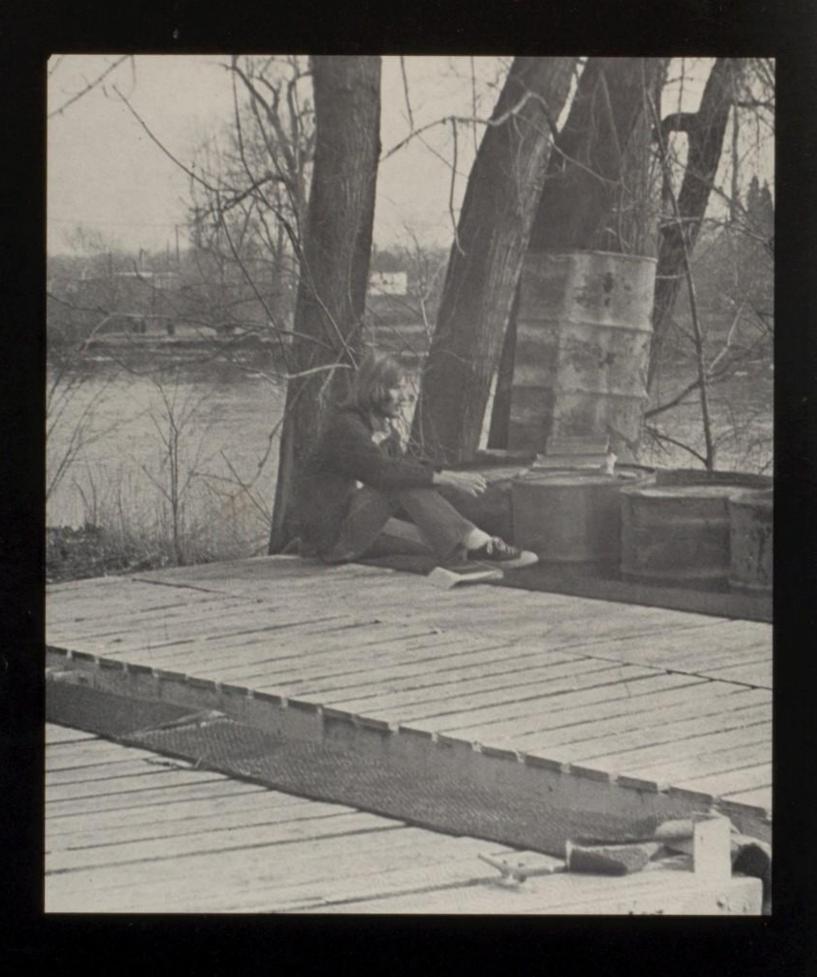

Fall was coming and the school building had that fresh waxed smell that says the new year is soon to begin. Everybody was getting ready, because everybody knew they had to go to school. Soon the first day came along, and all of the people got spruced up to go to school.

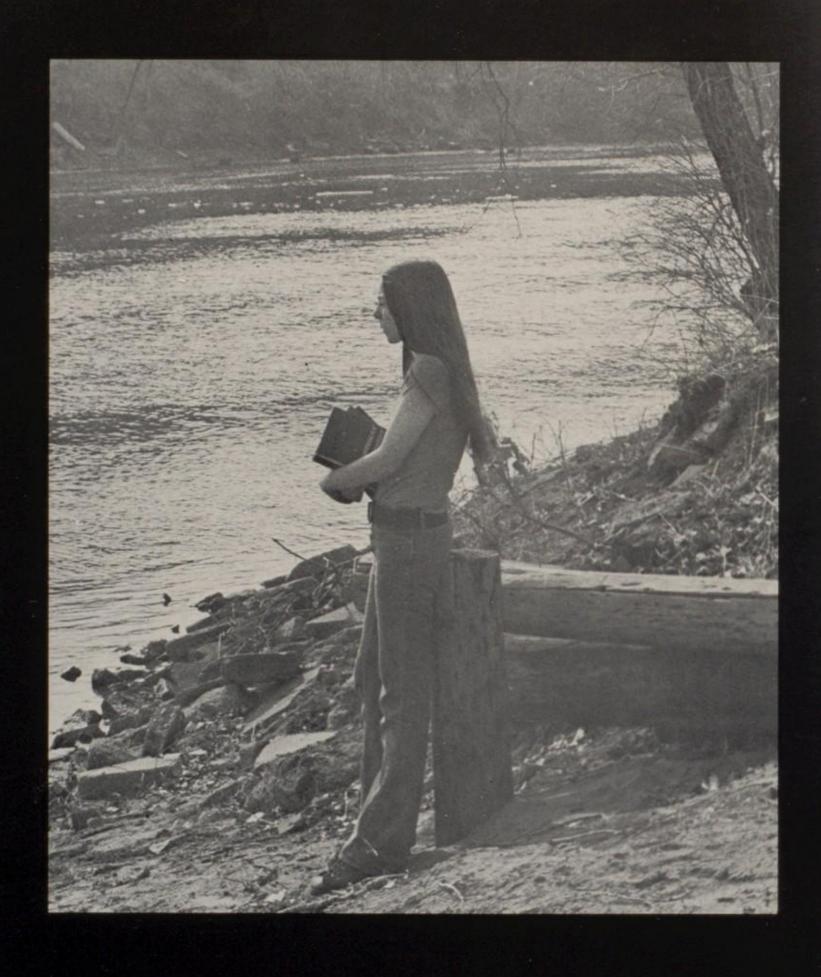

They found that it was hard to get into the routine of school. Some of the people were tempted to quit. Several did.

The people saw that the traditions and times were changing. The President indicted a price freeze, some of the students gained the right to vote, and many followed the news on the adult rights, including the right to drink at nineteen. There was still more—our concession stand was closed during lunch hour, Mr. Webb left North High, Mr. Brownell came, the seniors eliminated Baccalaureate; the band made plans to tour Hawaii, and the Spanish club planned a trip to Mexico. There was also another exciting event, the students staged a sit-in protesting the recommendation that Coach Camp should be dismised from coaching the basketball team.

By the time spring had come, the people had begun to think, and wonder. "Hey!" the people cried, "Why are things changing? Who are we? What do we believe?"

Webb Concludes Five Years Service As

Mr. Wendell Webb busily contemplates on school affairs. He attended University of Northern Iowa, B.A.; Drake University M.A.

Concluding five years service, Mr. Wendell Webb left North students and its faculty. Mr. Webb left to undertake the challenge of setting up a new administration at Hoyt Elementary School.

Mr. Rolland E. Brownell turned up as the replacement for Mr. Webb. Former principal at Sam J. Long, boys advisor and vice principal.

Towa State Univ. B.S.; M. S.

Miss Lyons, girls' advisor, was also the senior sponsor. She helped organize activities and sometimes got a little carried away with flying arms.

Being principal sometimes involved many headaches for Mr. Webb.

Many Angles of Communication Studied

Language classes took many different angles of studies. Spanish classes concentrated their efforts on planning the group's trip to Mexico.

Announcing the important news for the day in the morning and after school was a project for journalism I students. These students learn communication skills and prepare for work on Oracle and Yearbook.

New English Program Proves Effective

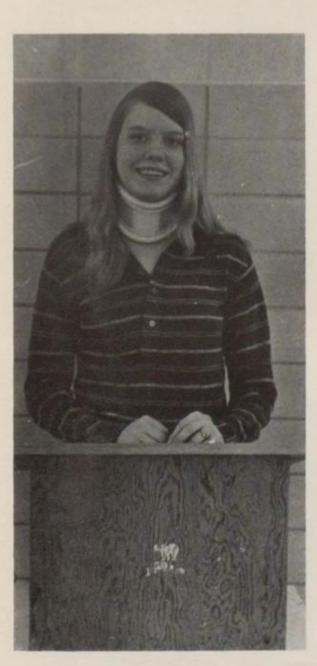

"Boy, this book sure is exciting."

Completing its first year under the new system, the English department held up well. Some classes were dropped, but many were extended into extra periods. Three new studies are being added next year; Contemporary Literature, Themes and Literature, and Literature for Today.

Efficiency Found in Lunch, Main. Crews

Relaxing for a moment, the crew, clockwise around the table are, Lawrence Pierick, Frank Smith, John Lakaszow, Ed Walker (head custodian), John Brown, Howard Griffiths, Ramon Logsdon.

"Hamburger, please." This became a main request as hamburgers appeared on the menu everyday.

Preparing and serving lunch each day occupies a lot of time and energy. North's staff of cafeteria workers somehow, manage to get the lunch out. Helping with the efficiency found was the purchase of a new dishwasher.

Cleaning the halls and rooms of the school is the job of the maintenance crew. The janitors also put in extra time and duty at basketball games and open houses.

Polar Bear defense converges on a Scarlet back.

the Key to Polar Bears' 1971 Season

It was a dark and stormy night.

Despite a fine defensive effort, the Polar Bears lost a heartbreaker to crosstown rival East in their conference debut. After this followed three weeks against Dowling, Roosevelt and Lincoln, all rated powers. A lack of depth cost the Bears needed strength to stay in the games yet, as Homecoming rolled around, N. H. S. was tenacious in its battle against Hoover. The offensive unit tied things up at the half and kept things close until the final quarter. The last two games were played in seas of mud and with the soggy turfs, the grid-ders fell to Valley and tied the Engineers, 6-6.

North also had a new coaching staff headed by Alex Glann. Coach Glann, a 1962 alumnus, brought many new aspects to the game. Other coaches were: Bo Belding, line coach, and Cecil Brewton, backfield coach.

In a year when the numbers were small, North's wrestlers relied on individual talent rather than on team effort. Hindered with at least two weights forefeited every meet, the team was winless in dual competition.

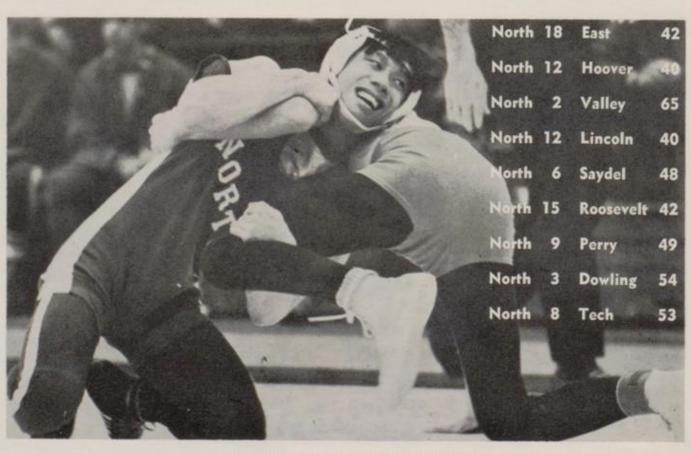

However, several men were consistent throughout the season. Under the direction of coach Tom Lutz, many finished with a successful season as a result of their work and dedication.

The 1971-1972 season for North's tankers proved to be one of the most successful in recent years. Guided by Coaches Bob Lawson and Cecil Brewton, the swimmers compiled a misleading 3-4 record in Metro Conference competition. Individually speaking, the Polar Bears were rich in talent with Fred Brewton, Reggie Lewis, Bill Willson, and Rick Kieler all establishing new school records. In state competition, Lewis, Brewton, and the 400 yd. medley team all qualified for the tourney with Lewis placing fifth in diving.

Hoping for another Metropolitan Conference title, and a repeat of last year's record, the Polar Bear Cagers entered the 71-72 season confidently. Their confidence was slightly halted by the number one rated Little Cyclones of Ames, by the score of 99 to 70. Hopes were high again after winning seven of the next nine games. The only two losses were inflicted by the Maroons of Dowling 90-72, and the fifth rated Bobcats from Marshalltown 78-71.

At the end of the first half of the season, the Polar Bears were tied for first place in Metro Conference action. By breaking Tech's eight game winning streak, the cagers had their hopes set on a basketball championship. The feeling was short lived however, having lost six of the final eight games. Second half victories over the Hoover Huskies and the Tigers of Valley accounted for the only wins as NHS also dropped the district opener to Roosevelt. Consequently, North High finished the 1972 season on a relatively sour

SOPH BASKETBALL '72

On the basketball scene for sophomores this year, the Cubs showed good potential for upcoming seasons. Under the direction of head coach Dick Jay and assistant Coach Bob Ligouri, the sophs scored big wins over Metro opponents such as Dowling, Hoover, and Roosevelt. In addition, the squad dealth the Engineers a rousing defeat in the first half of the Bears' triumph at the Tech High gym.

Throughout the year, the Cubs showed talent as evidenced by the performances of Bobby Holmes, Russel Watley, Walter Matlock, and Steve Hodges,

SWIMMING

With females making their strides in Women's Lib, the girls at NHS proved their aquatic ability in swimming competition last fall. With Coach Harry Mortensen taking charge of things, the girls went through rugged workouts with the results evidenced in victories over SEP and Tech. Leading the way for the team was standout Sue Leveke, with Debbie Johnson and Frances Van Dam close behind. All in all, cooperation and teamwork proved to be one of the group's biggest assets.

SOFTBALL

Fall is supposed to be the time of year for football and cross country, but the NHS girls have also made it the time for playing softball. In their first year of existence, the team set an example for other city schools to follow, as most of North's opponents were from outside Des Moines. With their Coach, Bill Funte, the girls put forth effort and entertainment during the season.

Cindermen Fly Through 1972

The cindermen at North High spent the spring of '72 low in both numbers and experience. With only around fifteen men out for the team, head Coach Ken Whitney had to rely on individual talent for success. In addition, the squad was composed of mainly underclassmen in their first year of varsity competition.

Yet, among the bright spots were seniors Chuck Berg, Mark Perkins, and Hiro Yamada, along with juniors Rick Hampe and Bill Willson. Taking control with the discus, Berg's early season efforts of nearly 150 ft. put him in contention for the conference title. Perkins and Yamada performed well in the hurdles while Hampe and Willson provided the base for long distance events.

Diamond Darlings Prepare for '72

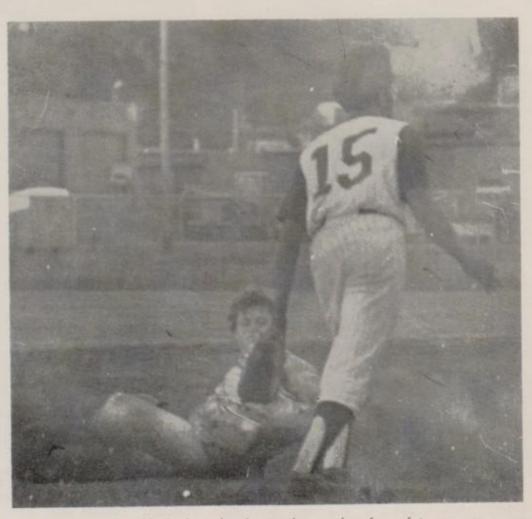

Summertime means rest and relaxation for some, and baseball for others. With Terry Henson, Rick Pepper, Larry Minks, and Dave McCombs the only returning lettermen, the team will be in need of men who can quickly adjust to varsity competition. Returning as head coach is Frank Calhoun, who hopes to put NHS in the thick of Metro competition. Due to the inexperience, the outcome of the squad may lie in the hands of some untested sophomore players.

The weekend of October 15 and 16 was a special one in the eyes of many North students. For some it was their first dance at North, for social committee the result of weeks of planning and for Theresa Westlake two days to remember. Theresa was chosen Queen at the half-time of the North-Tech football game October 15. With her escort Craig Hansen, who was named Mr. Football, she ruled over "Northern Lights" held October 16. West Min'ster provided the music for the dance and queen crowning.

Announcing the queen at the football game was only one change from previous Homecomings. This year the whole school voted for queen and ex-princesses were eligible to run for queen.

Northern Lights was further expressed in a float built by North students, to lead the car rally before the Homecoming game.

Candidates Theresa Westlake, Lori Nelson, and Lois Dunahoo await the announcement of queen at the half-time of the Homecoming game.

Fall Play Is "J. B."

"Hark! Who comest thou?" echoed throughout the auditorium November 12th and 13th, the dates of the Fall Play.

"J.B.," a drama in three acts, was written by Archibald Macleish, and directed by North High's drama teacher, John Thompson.

The play was based on the Book of Job from the Bible in which God tested the faith of man. The play starts out with the antics of two traveling circus performers that get involved in a circle of tragedies and include such characters as God and Satan.

"We Are North High" seems a fitting phrase for the look on this Varsity Cheer-leader's face.

The cheerleaders and fans do their best to cheer on their team during the district game against Roosevelt.

Ambassadors

The Cheerleaders of North have been busy this year showing their pep, enthusiasm, and pride in their school.

An announcement of a change in the Cheerleading squad was announced following try-outs.

The Varsity squad will consist of 12 girls who will cheer for the football season.

Junior Varsity will be eliminated and the Varsity squad will divide into two squads and will alternate cheering for basketball games, wrestling, and swimming meets.

Who says cheerleaders don't get involved?

Of the growing number of elective courses available, Journalism falls into this category.

Not wanting to seem old-fashioned, the yearbook and Oracle staff under the direction of Mrs. Penny Kelly, has experimented with new techniques, such as changing from the letter press to offset, allowing for a better quality in pictures and providing color and mood to fit any page. Also solarization, which is making a print look more like a negative and a new technique, reversing types such as white type on black paper.

Both the Oracle and Polar Bear staff members have worked hard this 71-72 season doing their best to use everything they have learned to keep North High's students well informed and to provide them with memories they will long remember.

Roger and Lois, who head the Oracle staff, take time out from their many duties to discuss a page of their paper.

Senior Mixer

Seniors re-lived the Roaring 20's at the mixer. Events began in the boys gym and then moved to the Student Center, with a silent film, a Charleston contest, and entertainment by the Fabulous 53/4 and Debbie Mutchler.

The "Dynamic Duo".

SENIORS RE-LIVE

"There's always room for more," says Robin Rollen to Stacy Taylor as they compete in the blindfolded marshmallow feed.

The Fabulous 53/4 perform to "Has Anybody Seen My Gal," starring Mike Giudicessi.

A sample of scme of the "roaring" costumes—and the senior women!

ROARING 20's AT THE 1972 MIXER

Dressed as a gangster, Frank Wong is awarded a ribbon for the ugliest costume by Master of Ceremonies, Joe Crosswhite.

"I told you guys Mr. Brownell wouldn't have any money!"

One highlight of the mixer was the orange pass, demonstrated by Kathy Jepsen and Tom Slater.

Linda gives Sue instructions as their wagon approaches the finish line.

AMERICAN REPUBLIC INSURANCE

The training of a mind is an exciting, lifetime adventure. The mind may be taught, or it may be selftrained. But, no matter the method used, an education is never finished. If serving your fellow man through work in the business world seems challenging to you, we hope you will come see us when your school days are over.

As part of Younkers firm belief in the young people of today, a program is affered each year for the Des Moines area schools . . . TEEN BOARD for junior and senior girls, and ADVISORY BOARD for junior and senior boys. These young people, selected to represent their schools, are chosen for leadership qualities, high scholastic standings, personal recommendations from school administrators and evaluation from members of the retiring boards, plus their interest and ability in retail and fashion. They participate in special fashion shows during the year, give talks in their schools and to other groups on good grooming, publish a monthly newsletter and work in various junior departments each Saturday. Younkers salutes the representatives from North High School for a job very well done.

Warm weather came. The thoughts of the people began trailing outside to the world of fresh air and sunshine. The nearby parks were full of students on week nights as well as weekends. Birdland lagoon, the river, and even the nearby train tressle seemed to be fascinating places to escape to during lunch periods. One thing seemed different though, the people had gained a lot of experience.

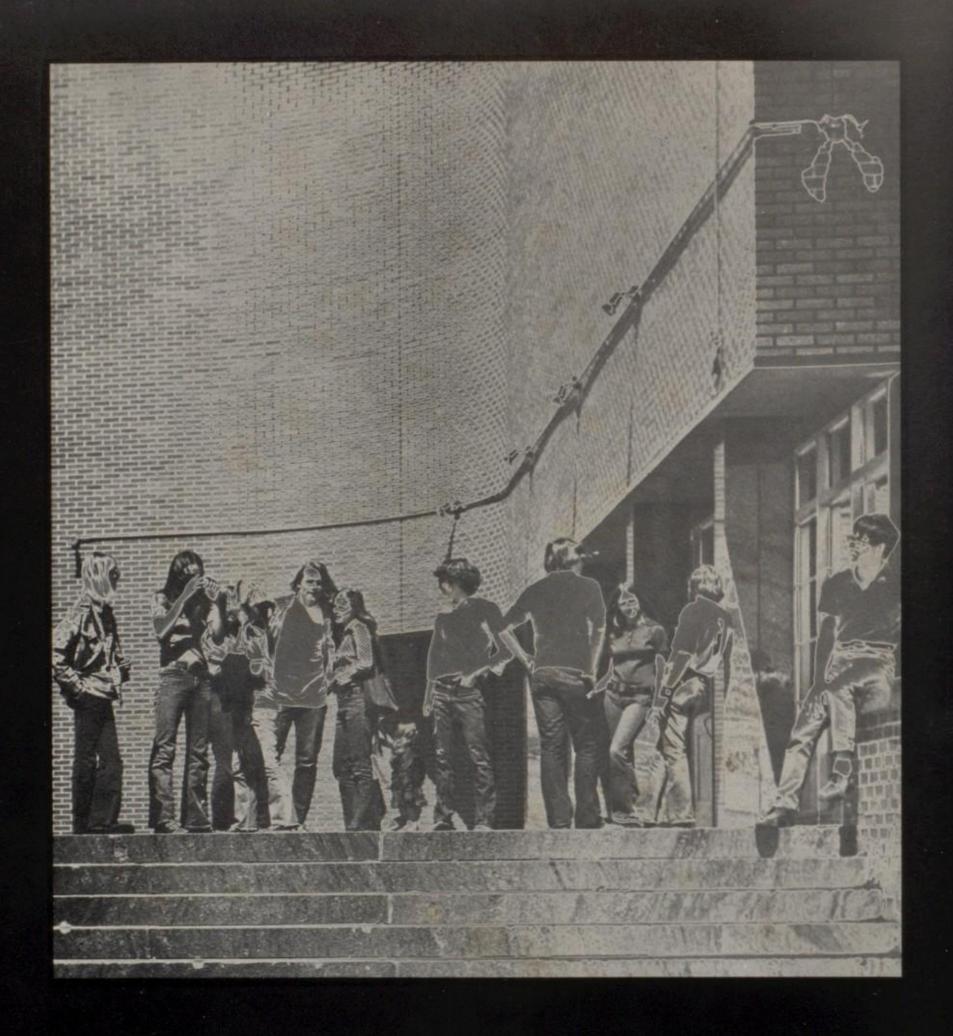

The students knew that they had changed the routine, each adding to the spirit of North High in their own individual way. And they saw the changes—classes seemed more casual, peoples views became more liberal, a lot of people rode 10 speed bicycles to school, and everybody wore blue jeans and sneakers.

They knew that the people make the school what it is.

"Hey!" the people cried. "We've learned a lot here! We've changed our school, we've added to it. We're not just the students of a school, we are the people of North High. This is our school. This is our year. We believe in '72."
